

GENERAL MEDICAL ULTRASOUND STUDY DAY

Join us for a full-day educational event dedicated to advancing skills and clinical insight in General Medical Ultrasound. This study day brings together expert speakers delivering practical, evidence-based sessions covering liver, renal, hepatobiliary, and scrotal ultrasound, alongside live demonstrations, and opportunities for discussion.

26th June 2026 | Manchester

9.00	Registration
9.30	Welcome and housekeeping,
9.40	Liver Ultrasound making sense of Segmental Anatomy and Live demonstration, Gerry Johnson, Tameside Hospitals Trust
10.25	Liver Doppler and Doppler technique, Colin Griffin, Liverpool University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
10.55	Refreshment Break
11.15	Chronic liver disease - the role of ultrasound, Pamela Parker, Hull University Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
11.45	Hepato-biliary and the acute abdomen - what does your clinician want to know? (TBC)
12.30	Lunch Break
13.30	Fibroscan liver pilot - MASLD in the community, Bethia Featherstone
14.00	Renal transplant overview, Colin Griffin, Liverpool University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
14.20	Acute pathology of the scrotum and diagnostic dilemma's in practice, Dean Huang, King's College Hospital NHS Foundation Trust
14.50	Questions
15.00	Break
15.20	U&Es, kidneys, and ultrasound. What does you clinician want to know? TBC
15.50	Hydronephrosis - is this always obstruction? Pamela Parker, Hull University Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
16.20	Questions
16.30	Close