

OBSTETRICS STUDY DAY

Saturday, 12th September 2026 | London

9.00	Registration
9.25	Welcome and housekeeping
9.30	Will Ophthalmic Artery Doppler Replace Uterine Artery Dopplers in the Prediction of Preeclampsia? (Virtual) Professor Asma Khalil, St George's Hospital
10.15	Prenatal Detection of Congenital Heart Disease, Dr Trisha Vigneswaran, Evelina London Children's Hospital, Guys & St Thomas' NHS Trust and NCARDRS, NHS England
11.00	Refreshment Break
11.15	Improving the Antenatal Detection of Congenital Heart Disease: Challenges, Collaboration and Change, Ms Ann Rhodes, Tiny Tickers
12.00	Sonography and Patient Safety: The Role of Evidence-Based Standards for Fetal Growth Assessment, Professor Jason Gardosi, Perinatal Institute Birmingham
12.45	Lunch
13.45	Diagnosis and Misdiagnosis of Early Pregnancy Loss: Systematic Classification of Early Pregnancy Scan Findings, Ms Emma Kirk, Royal Free Hospital London
14.30	Estimate, Guesstimate: Is Ultrasound Estimated Fetal Weight (EFW) Accurate Enough?, Dr Nick Dudley, United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust
15.15	Refreshment Break
15.30	Delivering Compassionate and Quality Care in the Face of Significant Sonographer Burnout and Fatigue, Mr Anthony Ibiam, Sheffield Teaching Hospital
16.00	Close and Feedback