

HYCOSY STUDY DAY

Join our specialised HyCoSy (Hysterosalpingo-Contrast Sonography) and SIS (saline infusion sonography) training course, designed for clinicians, sonographers, and fertility professionals looking to develop confidence and expertise in this essential fertility investigation.

13th June 2026 | Derriford

9.00	Registration
9.30	Welcome and introduction, Ms Janet Villars, Derriford Hospital, Plymouth
9.45	Role of HyCoSy from a clinician's perspective, Dr Joanne Page, Derriford Hospital Care fertility unit in Plymouth
10.15	Principles of HyCoSy – patient preparation and technique, Ms Carly Parkinson, Derriford Hospital, Plymouth
10.45	Refreshment Break
11.15	Practical demonstration and hands-on of priming catheters + contrast, Ms Janet Villars, Derriford Hospital, Plymouth, Ms Carly Parkinson, Derriford Hospital, Plymouth
11.45	Surgical management of uterine cavity pathology and abnormalities, Dr Elinor Medd, Derriford Hospital, Plymouth
12.15	Lunch Break
13.15	HyCoSy in Practice: A step-by-step filmed clinical demonstration
13.45	Developing a HyCoSy Service: Lessons from a Sonographer – Ms Angela Clough, Derriford Hospital, Plymouth
14.15	Behind the scenes of HyCoSy – insights from a fertility nurse specialist
14:30	Break
15.00	Essential tips for report writing , Ms Janet Villars, Derriford Hospital, Plymouth
15.30	HyCoSy in Practice: Tricky Cases and How to Handle Them, Ms Janet Villars, Derriford Hospital, Plymouth, Ms Carly Parkinson, Derriford Hospital, Plymouth
16.00	General questions and conclusions
16.15	Concluding remarks and close