

Recruitment and development: Arming leaders to support their staff

Wednesday, 20th March | Birmingham

- 09.00 Registration
- 09.25 Welcome, C. Kirkpatrick, United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust
- 09.30 What is preceptorship and who needs supporting? Dr P. Cantin, University Hospitals Plymouth NHS Trust
- 09.50 BMUS Preceptorship Endorsement Scheme – what’s it all about? C. Kirkpatrick, United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust
- 10.20 The experiences of a BMUS Preceptorship Endorsement Scheme pilot site, N. Davidson, Worcestershire Acute Hospitals NHS Trust
- 10.40 The practice educator’s perspective, S. Watty, Guy’s and St Thomas’ NHS Foundation Trust
- 11.00 Panel Q & A
- 11.10 Refreshment break
- 11.30 Challenges around recruitment: Early recruitment survey results, H. Edwards, BMUS
- 12.00 Practitioners without CASE-accredited qualifications – what is CASE’s role? G. Dolbear, Consortium for the Accreditation of Sonographic Education
- 12.20 The role of HEIs in supporting recruitment/preceptorship, Dr R. Phillips, University of the West of England
- 12.40 Panel Q & A
- 12.55 Lunch
- 13.45 A manager’s perspective on supporting/recruiting staff, P. Parker, Hull University Teaching Hospitals
- 14.15 Supporting the workforce of the future – newly qualified sonographers, H. Spencer, NHS England (South East) Workforce Training & Education
- 14.35 My professional identity crisis: Experiences of a South African sonographer practising in the UK. S. Pillay, Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
- 14.55 Panel Q & A
- 15.10 Refreshment break
- 15.30 Interactive workshop led by H. Edwards, BMUS, and S. Smith, Hull University Teaching Hospitals
- 16.15 Workshop feedback
- 16.30 Summary and close