

Recruitment and development: Arming leaders to support their staff

Wednesday, 20th March | Birmingham

- 09.00 Registration
- 09.25 Welcome, C. Kirkpatrick, Consultant Sonographer, United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust
- 09.30 What is preceptorship and who needs supporting? Dr P. Cantin, Consultant Sonographer, University Hospitals Plymouth NHS Trust
- 09.50 20 BMUS Preceptorship Endorsement Scheme – what’s it all about? C. Kirkpatrick
- 10.20 The experiences of a BMUS Preceptorship Endorsement Scheme pilot site, N. Davidson, Lead Sonographer, Worcestershire Acute Hospitals NHS Trust
- 10.40 The practice educator’s perspective, S. Watty, Practice Educator, Guy’s and St Thomas’ NHS Foundation Trust
- 11.00 Panel Q & A
- 11.10 Refreshments break
- 11.30 Challenges around recruitment: early recruitment survey results, H. Edwards, Professional Officer, BMUS
- 12.00 Practitioners without CASE-accredited qualifications – what is CASE’s role? G. Dolbear, Education Officer, Consortium for the Accreditation of Sonographic Education
- 12.20 The role of HEIs in supporting recruitment/preceptorship, Dr R. Phillips, Joint Programme Lead, M.Sc. Medical Ultrasound, University of the West of England
- 12.40 Panel Q & A
- 12.50 Lunch
- 13.40 A manager’s perspective on supporting/recruiting staff, P. Parker, Consultant Sonographer, Hull University Teaching Hospitals
- 14.00 NHSE and national sonographer-focused initiatives TBC
- 14.20 Supporting the workforce of the future – newly qualified sonographers, H. Spencer, Clinical Education Improvement Fellow, NHS England (South East) Workforce Training & Education
- 14.40 Panel Q & A
- 14.50 Refreshments break
- 15.05 Interactive workshop led by H. Edwards and S. Smith, Practice Educator, Hull University Teaching Hospitals
- 15.55 Workshop feedback
- 16.15 Summary and close