

HEAD AND NECK ULTRASOUND STUDY DAY

Designed to refresh, challenge, and inspire, this study day combines core skills with forward-thinking clinical insight.

Covering training levels 1–3, our expert faculty brings together specialist knowledge and real-world experience. A strong practical focus runs throughout, supporting everyone from those just starting out to highly experienced practitioners.

21st May 2026 | Milton Keynes

9.00	Registration and Refreshments
9.30	Welcome and BMUS Study Day Programme
9.35	Anatomy and 7-Sweeps practical, Mrs Amy Barnes, University Hospitals of Leicester, Mr. Gerry Johnson, Tameside & Glossop Integrated Care NHS Trust
10.20	BTA Overview, Dr. Steve Colley, BMI Priory Hospital Birmingham
10.40	Varying Nodal appearances, Mrs. Roma Dave, Portsmouth Hospitals Trust
11.00	Refreshment Break and meet the sponsors
11.20	Parathyroid, Salivary Glands & Everything else!, Mrs. Nicola Davidson
11.40	Disease processes within the neck, Mr. Gerry Johnson, Tameside & Glossop Integrated Care NHS Trust
12.20	Tissue sampling procedures (cytology, histology, HODS & genetics), Mrs Penny Moores, James Paget University Hospitals, Norfolk
12.35	Lunch Break
13.30	An introduction to cross-sectional image correlation, Mrs. Amy Barnes, University Hospitals of Leicester
14.00	Positive RNI & Pathology overlap, Mr Anthony Eka, James Paget University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
14.20	Practical Session 1&2- (1. Anatomy and 7-Sweeps practical, 2. Tissue sampling technique and preparations for pathology)
15.40	Refreshment Break
15.45	The Future...(Artificial Intelligence systems & Ablations), Mrs. Amy Barnes, University Hospitals of Leicester, Mr. Colin Griffin NHS University Hospitals of Liverpool Group
16.00	Close