

VETERINARY ULTRASOUND

Study Day 2025

The aim of this study day is to promote high standards of clinical ultrasound practice and diagnostic confidence. The education will endorse the importance of excellent ultrasound system skills and techniques which will support non Vet Specialists, Vet Nurses and Vet Ultrasound Practitioners wishing to embark on a career pathway which involves the regular use of ultrasound.

SATURDAY
5TH JULY

B&B HOTEL DERBY
DE24 8PU

- LUNCH INCLUDED
- VALID FOR 6 CPD POINTS

PROGRAMME

10.00	Welcome and Introduction, Mrs Julie Burnage
10.05	How Surrey University School of Veterinary Medicine is preparing their veterinary students for future ultrasound practice, Dr Catherine Finnegan
10.45	Challenges faced when setting up a peripatetic ultrasound service, Dr Fabrizio Tuccarioni
11.25	Refreshment Break
11.45	How to assess the portal vein on ultrasound - normal and abnormal portal vein appearances on ultrasound, Dr Cristi Glavan
12.30	Echo Clues: Spotting the Signs in Liver and Gallbladder Scans, Dr Stefano Ludovici
13.10	Lunch
13.40	Basic cardiac views and common abnormalities for primary care practice ultrasound users? Dr Mark Overend
14.25	Ultrasound Image Artefacts, Miss Borsha Sarker
15.10	How Ultrasound Can Help Diagnosis of Small Animal Endocrine Disease, Dr Rebecca Littler
15.55	Refreshment Break
16.10	The E.A.S.I.E.R Ultrasound Solution™ – how to develop and sustain a high quality, financially successful primary care ultrasound service, Mrs Angie Lloyd-Jones
16.45	Open Forum Q&A and Discussion, Mrs Julie Burnage
17.00	Close of Meeting